

When we designed AG CancerCare, we started by examining the needs of real cancer patients. Then we created an affordable solution for meeting those requirements, supported by a user-friendly claims process that delivers timely payments directly to you, unless you assign payment to a health care provider.

Our AG CancerCare Platinum Plus policy covers most in- and out-of-hospital medical services, as well as chemotherapy, transplants, ICU confinement, National Cancer Institute evaluations and more.

AG CancerCare is something you hope you'll never need. But should that need ever arise, you can rest assured that you're covered by a top-quality policy from one of the most trusted names in the insurance industry — American General Life Insurance Company.

Cancer: Managing the Risk

We're committed to our clients' security just like you're committed to your own family's security. That's why we provide quality products designed to make sure you'll have the protection you need, when you need it. Now we're pleased to offer an additional solution that delivers dependable coverage when you need it most — AG CancerCare.

Approximately one-half of all American men and one-third of all American women will experience some type of cancer at some point during their lifetimes.<sup>1</sup> Fortunately, with some cancers approaching unprecedented survival rates, more patients than ever can continue to live full, rewarding lives. While advanced treatments have vastly improved the outlook for millions of patients, the costs of these treatments can sometimes be overwhelming.

Many cancer-related expenses — such as travel to treatment facilities, in-home nursing services and prosthetic devices — often are not covered by traditional health insurance plans. Supplemental cancer insurance has helped millions of Americans manage these costs, freeing patients and their families from excessive financial burdens by picking up where traditional health insurance leaves off. If cancer strikes your family, a cancer insurance policy can provide the protection you need to face the future with confidence.
